

Parks & Open Space of Montgomery Township, New Jersey

Montgomery Township is very active in the preservation of open space and agricultural heritage, protecting natural resources, vistas and viewsheds, and providing residents with an extensive network of trails.

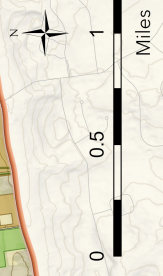

The Township has over 8,000 acres of existing open space, representing almost 40% its total area; 5,837 acres are in the form of public and private open space lands, while preserved agricultural lands total 2,288 acres.

Legend

- Montgomery Boundary
- Municipality Boundaries
- Parks, Preserves, Pathways
- Private/Montgomery Twp. Open Space
- Agricultural Open Space

Data Sources:
Montgomery Township
State of New Jersey
USGS

Produced by Kevin Burkman
GIS Analyst
March 2026