

Tree Canopy of Montgomery Township, New Jersey

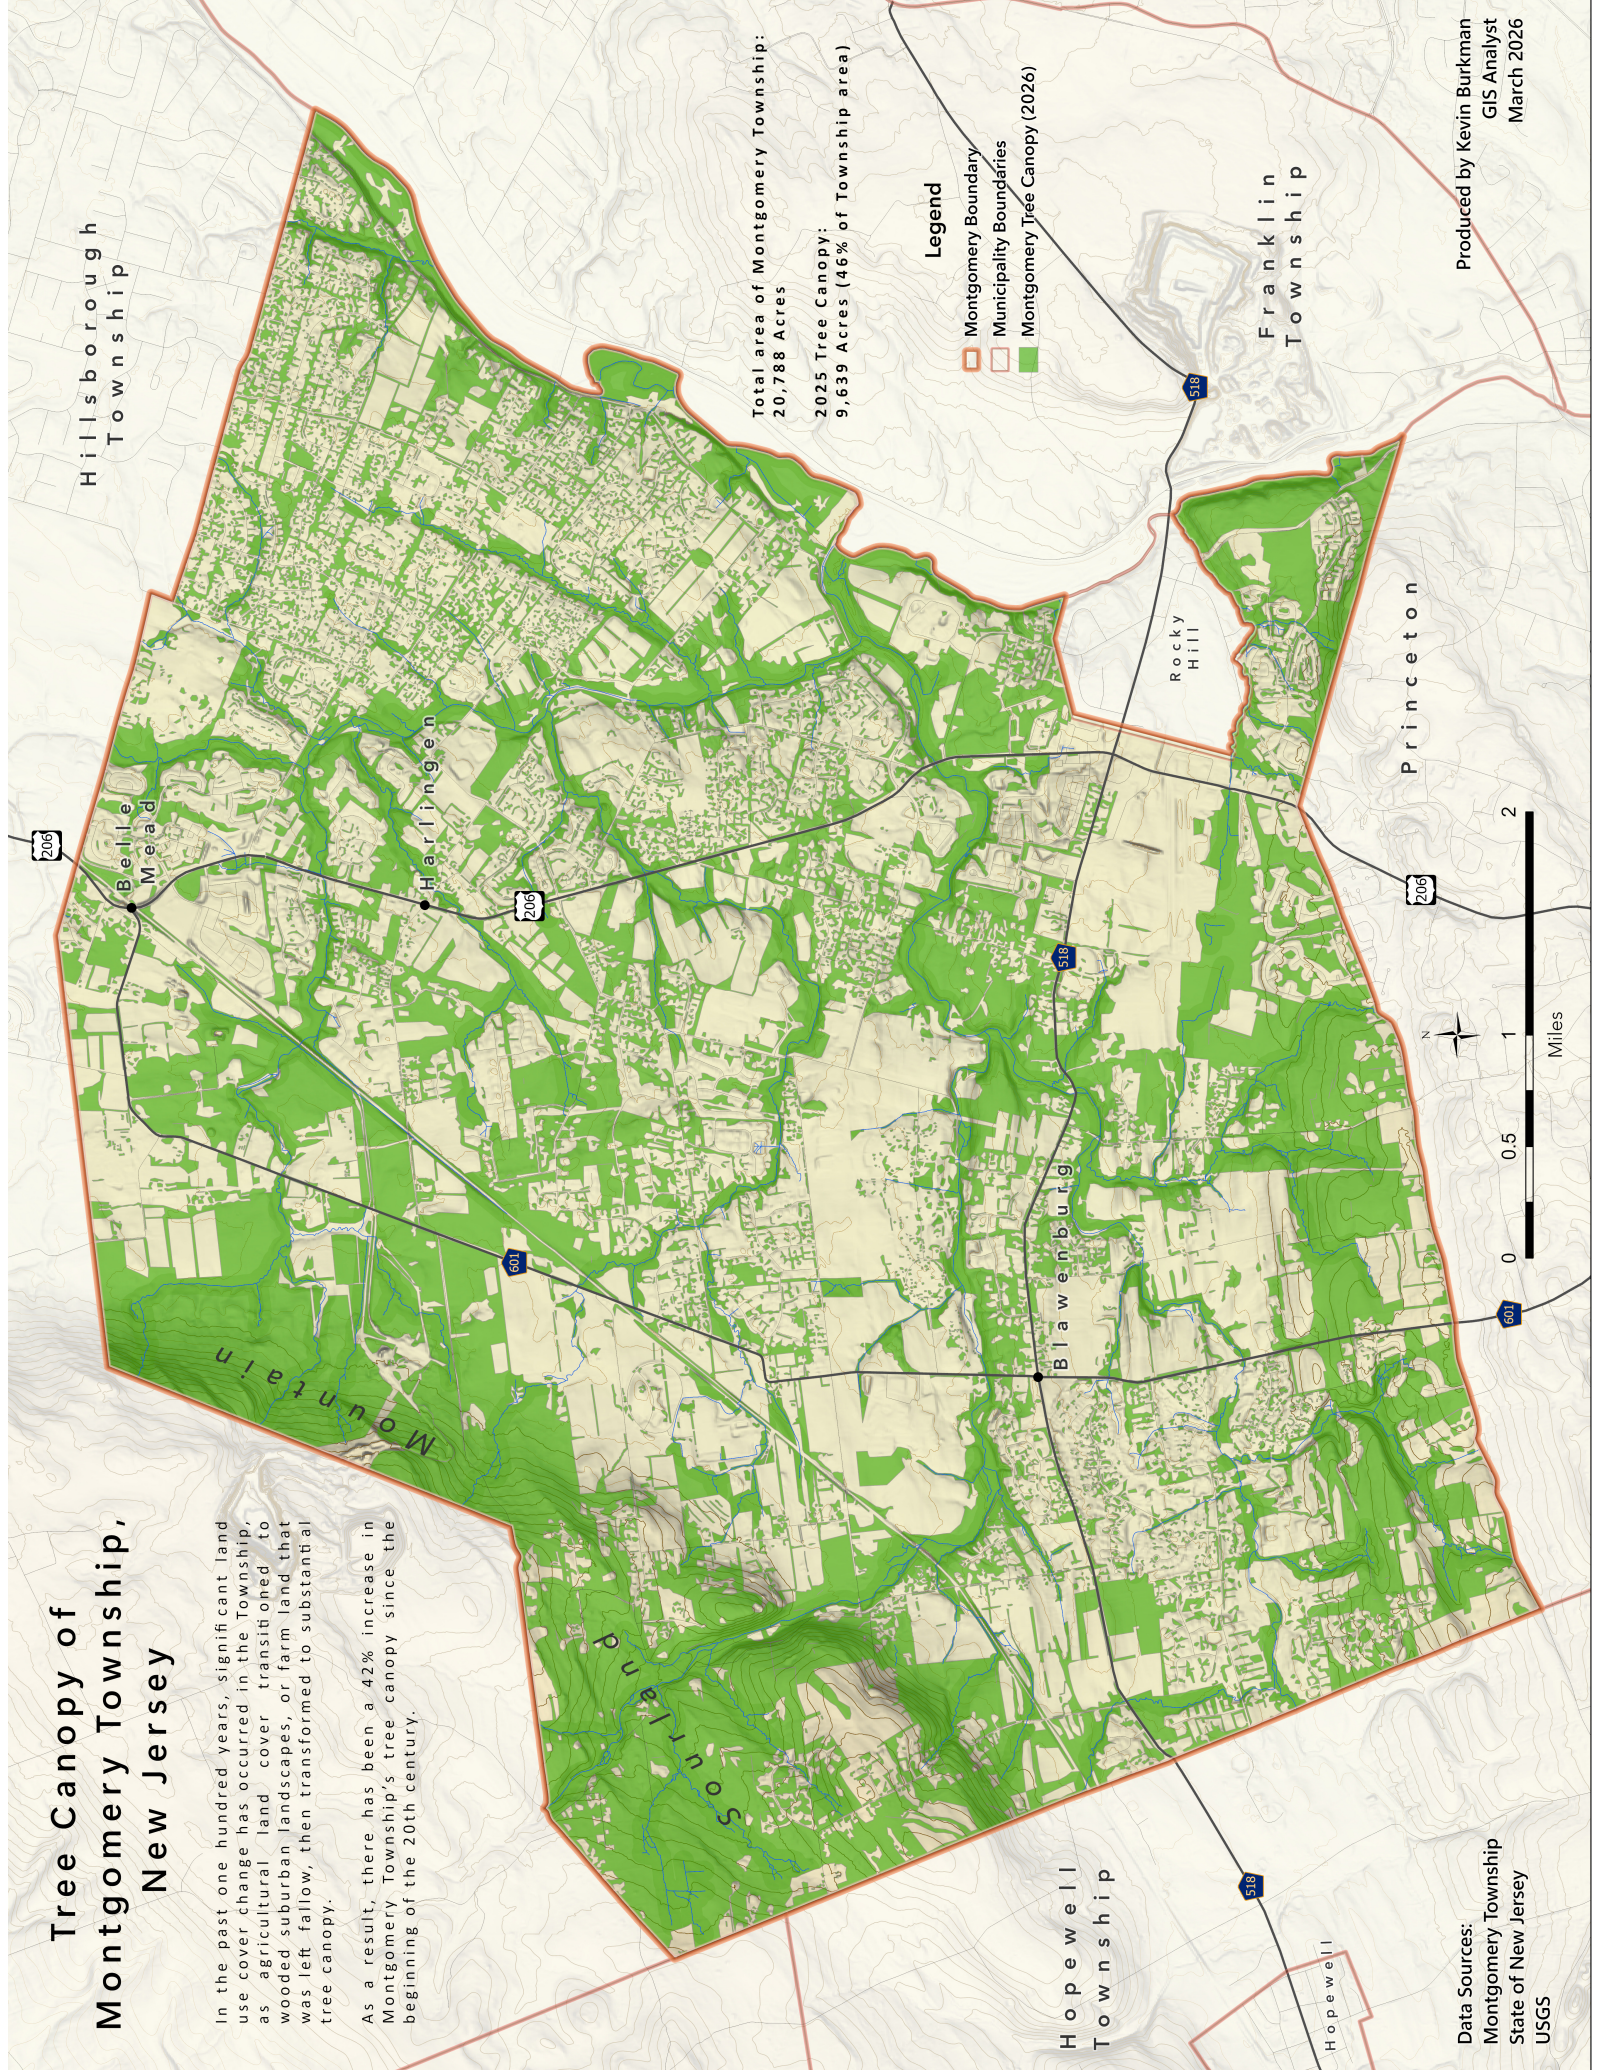

In the past one hundred years, significant land use cover change has occurred in the Township, as agricultural land cover transitioned to wooded suburban landscapes, or farm land that was left fallow, then transformed to substantial tree canopy.

As a result, there has been a 42% increase in Montgomery Township's tree canopy since the beginning of the 20th century.

Total area of Montgomery Township:
20,788 Acres

2025 Tree Canopy:
9,639 Acres (46% of Township area)

- Legend
- Montgomery Boundary
 - Municipality Boundaries
 - Montgomery Tree Canopy (2026)

Produced by Kevin Burkman
GIS Analyst
March 2026

Data Sources:
Montgomery Township
State of New Jersey
USGS